Boston, March 17. 1869.

Dear Sir:

The four vacancies caused by removal in the Board of Trustees under Mr. Jackson's will are filled according to your nomination, & Miss Stevenson & Mr. Atkinson are appointed to the other two places. When the new Trustees have filed an acceptance of the trust, in writing, they may organize with the others as a Board and will be entitled to receive & dispose of the trust fund.

No costs are to be allowed to either party.

I am yours sincerely,

James C. Davis.

Samuel May. Jr. Esq.

You will find a notice of the Comess marriage in the last page of your Advertiser of today.
When I arrived in town (at midnight) it was too late to get it into the inside of the paper.
